Thought No 1

Horizontal red pierces through the eyeball of the sun .

I'd like to wait for you but instead I pour myself another dream.

Thought No 2

Thoughts are like sun rays running through an iron fence on a hot summer day.

Thought No 3

Don't think of lights but sleep.
Sleep sleep who knows where you'll wake up?
And in whose body?

Thought No 4

When feeling lonely
When you are sad
This is a feeling That we all have Look at the sky
And you will see A Big Bird fly
Hatching the moon Through its Big Yellow eye.

You'll know then Why the night
Doesn't have light.
Why the day
Gets longer in May.
Why the bird
Knows why
You feel lonely
When you die.
